"Hollywood Biblical Epics and the Spectacle of Scripture" Workshop

Richard Lindsay, PhD will be teaching an online workshop on September 19 & 26, 2020 1pm-3pm (PDT). "Hollywood Biblical Epics and the Spectacle of Scripture" is open to everyone, and offered by CARE, the Center for Art and Religion and the Graduate Theological Union. The cost is $100, and you can register at <https://www.gtu.edu/careworkshops>.

Free Virtual History and Genealogy Mini-Conference

Boone County Public Library invites anyone interested to participate in its History and Genealogy Mini-Conference to be held virtually (by Zoom) on Friday, August 21. Becky Lindsay will be presenting part of the program. Her topic will be "The Mennonite Experience in the Confederacy, 1861-1865." The keynote speaker will be Joseph McGill from the "Slave Dwelling Project." Other topics presented will be: the Underground Railroad in Kentucky and topics of interest to genealogists such as Organizing and Caring for Family Photographs, going beyond church records and using military, medical, and pension records. The conference is FREE and open to the public.

For a full description of the program and to register for the conference, go to <https://boone.libnet.info/event/4449417>
