Buckhorn Disaster Offering

Buckhorn Children and family Services state their mission as: The mission of Buckhorn Children & Family Services is to provide a sanctuary of health, healing, and hope for at-risk children, youth, and families.

Unfortunately, that mission is in jeopardy, due to the disastrous flooding in their area of eastern Kentucky. Several of their buildings have been severely damaged, several of their staff have lost their homes and all their possessions, and the Buckhorn Elementary School has also been heavily damaged and has had to delay opening for the new school year.

COF has supported Buckhorn for many years with our Christmas gifts and donations, as well as our prayers. Most of you know that Jack Kleier has been on the Buckhorn Board of Directors for decades.

Please consider a gift of cash or a gift card to Buckhorn, through Community of Faith, sometime in the next 2-3 weeks. You can put a check in the offering plate made out to Community of Faith (with "Buckhorn" in the memo line), donate online through the church, or pick up gift cards to Walmart, Target, or Lowes. The gift cards can be given directly to Jack, or to Bill Lindsay, Treasurer.
