Commitment Sunday - November 6

As we have been pointing out during our minutes for mission in this Stewardship Season, this year's stewardship theme is: Growing in Faith Through Active Stewardship. The season officially ends, today, November 6, "Commitment Sunday." Notice that this doesn't mean that stewardship ends on November 6! The fact that we have come "full circle" to the point of "commitment" means that it's time to begin a new year of carrying out our commitments.

Remember our dictionary definition(s) of commitment? Commitment is an agreement or pledge to do something in the future; an engagement to assume a financial obligation at a future date; something pledged; the state or an instance of being obligated or emotionally impelled; e.g. a commitment to a cause.

These all represent ACTIVE stewardship. As you submit your "Estimate of Giving" card, today (or next week, if it's not possible today), please consider it as your "down payment" for your commitment to the work, worship, and mission of Community of Faith Presbyterian. Thank you for your past gifts, and we look forward to your future generous giving of your time, talents, and treasure in 2023.
